

Subscribe Now

‘Your new subscription sales channel for your market.’

Why?

The subscription market is a rapidly developing and highly successful business model. With the ability to provide a subscription model to your business you are able to:

- Provide a reliable monthly flow of cash into your business
- Higher customer retention and satisfaction
- Increase your ability to upsell and cross sell services
- Create a long term relationship with clients
- Increase the value of your business with a subscriber base
- Remove cost perception as a barrier to entry
- Gain traction and trust through trials or teaser sessions

How

Working with the Relationship Unlimited team we will help you to identify and develop your subscription business. Collaborating with you to build a sustainable recurring revenue stream, building your success and business model with you.

At Relationship Unlimited we use tools and solutions designed to enable and simplify the subscription process. We use the world’s # 1 Chargebee subscription service engine integrated with Salesforce to solidify your success.

Subscription Workshop

Interested? Lets start with our Subscription Workshop. In this workshop we will take you through:

- Subscription modelling
- Assessment and Product positioning
- Salesforce and Chargebee subscription engine
- High-level process design and user requirements
- How to gain a greater market traction and allow your customers to trial your products and services

All of this will be captured in a summary report to support your decision making process. As well as equipping you with the knowledge and support to go forward with your Subscription Services, taking it to market, and building the success and value of your business.

Contact us today to arrange your free, no obligation chat and get more value from your Salesforce investment.

E: info@relationshipunlimited.com Ph: +64 4 479 1326